To the extent Grantor owns the surface overlaying the above-referenced tracts on which mineral only is conveyed, or to the extent Grantor holds the following rights on the above-referenced tracts on which the minerals and surface have previously been severed, for the consideration paid to Grantor herein. Grantor also grants and conveys the following rights to Grantee:

- A. The right to enter in, under and upon the surface of the above-described tracts for the purposes of drilling, excavating, mining, ventilating, processing, preparing and removing, in any manner whatsoever, including auger, surface mining, highway mining, longwall mining, or other modern methods of mining which are now known or may be hereafter developed, all of the minerals conveyed herein or mineral hereinafter owned or controlled by Grantee, or its successors, assigns or affiliates, including the right to construct all facilities necessary or convenient for the mining and extracting of such minerals.
- B. The right to construct, use and maintain roads, pipelines, drainage systems, retention ponds and haulways on, or over or under the surface of the above-described tracts in connection with the mining, removal and processing of minerals conveyed herein or minerals hereafter owned or controlled by Grantee, or its successors, assigns or affiliates.
- C. The right to transport, free of any charge or fee, over, under, through and beyond the surface of the above-described tracts, all minerals conveyed herein or minerals hereafter owned or controlled by Grantee, or its successors, assigns or affiliates.
